

1912-013 Chancery Causes: Nancy Skidmore vs. James Skidmore
Lee Co.

Ely

CA-Divorce

To the Honorable H. A. W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County, Virginia.

Humbly complaining your complainant, Nancy Skidmore, would respectfully represent and show unto your Honor that on the _____ day of _____, 1905, in the County of Hancock, Tennessee, she was married to one James Skidmore, with whom she lived one day, and the said James Skidmore wilfully deserted and abandoned your complainant without any just cause, and has ever since refused to live with your said complainant.

Your complainant alleges that said wilfull desertion has continued for more than three years before the institution of this suit; and that she is a resident and citizen of Lee County, Virginia, and has been all her life; and that the said James Skidmore is also a resident of Lee County, Virginia, and has been for several years; that your complainant and her said husband last resided together in this County; and your complainant alleges that she is entitled to a divorce, a vinculo matrimonii.

In tender consideration whereof, and for as much as she is remediless in the premises save by the aid of a Court of Equity, she prays that said James Skidmore be made a party defendant to this bill, and answer the same, but not on oath that being waived; that on a hearing your Honor grant her an absolute divorce from the said James Skidmore, and she prays for all other and further relief generally that the nature of her cause may require or to Equity seem meet. And she will ever pray, &c.

Nancy Skidmore.....Plaintiff.
vs. } IN CHANCERY.
James Skidmore.....Defendant.

THIS CAUSE came on this day to be heard upon the bill of complaint and depositions of witnesses filed therewith. And was argued by counsel.

On consideration of which, it appearing that process had been duly served upon the defendant, and he failing to plead, answer or demur, it is adjudged, ordered and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted, and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant, be forever dissolved, and the plaintiff be divorced from her said husband a vinculo matrimonii, and that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the costs of this suit, to be taxed by the Clerk, for which execution may issue. And nothing further remaining to be done the cause is stricken from the docket.

The depositions of C. W. Ely, and others, taken at the Law Office of M. G. Ely, in the town of Jonesville, Virginia, on the 20th day of January, 1912, before me, James W. Orr, Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, pursuant to notice hereto annexed, to be read as evidence in behalf of the plaintiff in a certain Chancery suit pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, wherein Nancy Skidmore is plaintiff and James Skidmore is defendant.

Present: M. G. Ely, attorney for the plaintiff.

C. W. Ely, a witness of lawful age, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Q. State your age, residence, occupation and whether or not you are acquainted with the parties to this suit, if so, state how long you have known them?

A. I am 39 years of age; reside Jonesville, Virginia, merchant, and am acquainted with the parties to the suit, and have known them for the last six years.

Q. State if you know when the plaintiff and defendant married?

A. I think it was about six years ago. They went to Tennessee and were married.

Q. State whether or not they lived together any length of time after their marriage, and whether or not the defendant, James Skidmore, willfully deserted and abandoned his said wife and refused to live with her?

A. As I stated before, they went to Tennessee and were married, and came back into Lee County, Virginia, to her home, and possibly stayed all night together. Next day the defendant left her, went back to his father's house and has never lived with her since, and he refuses to go back and live with her as his wife. I know of no reason that he has for deserting his wife more than his people were opposed to the marriage.

Q. State how long this separation or desertion has continued?

A. It has continued for more than three years before the institution of this suit, in fact, it's right at six years.

Q. State whether or not the plaintiff and defendant were both citizens of Lee County, Virginia, and if so, how long have they resided here?

A. They are, and have been residents of Lee County, Virginia, for about eight or nine years to my knowledge.

And further this deponent saith not.

C. W. Ely

Sarah Ely another witness of lawful age, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Q. You have heard read to you the questions and answers propounded to C. W. Ely, state whether or not you can make about the same answers to the same questions.

A. I can.

And further this deponent saith not.

Sarah Ely

State of Virginia,
County of Lee, to-wit:

I, James W. Orr, a Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, do hereby certify that the foregoing depositions were taken, sworn to, and subscribed before me at the time and place, and for the purpose in the caption mentioned.

Given under my hand this the 30th day of January, 1912.
